

...later that day...

Advertising

To drum up more sales, the young entrepreneurs decide to run an advertising campaign. They hire Ricky Starell, the kid across the street.

Interesting kid, that Ricky. You wonder what he wants to be when he grows up. Perhaps he will:

1. ... ride on the range, herding cattle. (6)
2. ... study dinosaurs. (14)
3. ... decide who is innocent and who is guilty. (5)
4. ... build structures with his tools. (9)
5. ... make sure the animals are safely in their cages. (9)
6. ... help sick people get better. (6)
7. ... put on makeup and act silly. (5)
8. ... grow crops and livestock. (6)
9. ... fly a plane. (5)
10. ... fix people's teeth when they get cavities. (7)
11. ... represent his country and travel abroad. (8)

Or maybe his dream job is in some other field entirely.

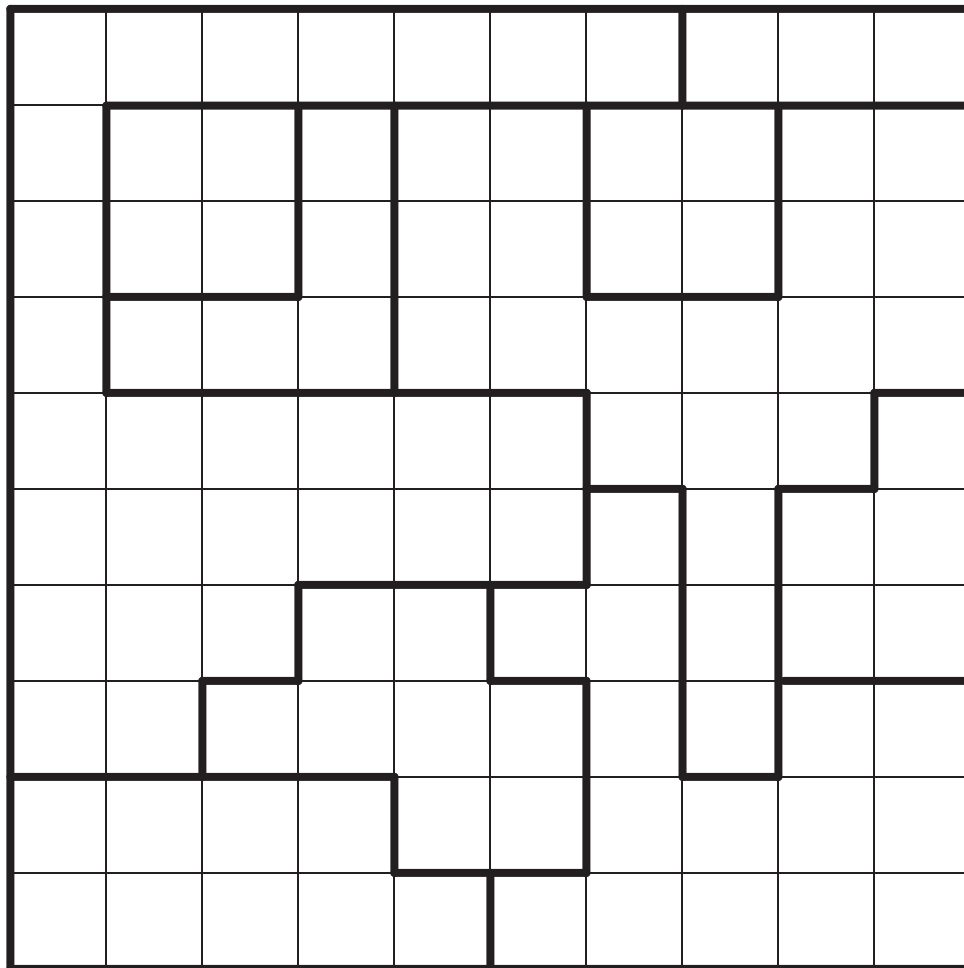

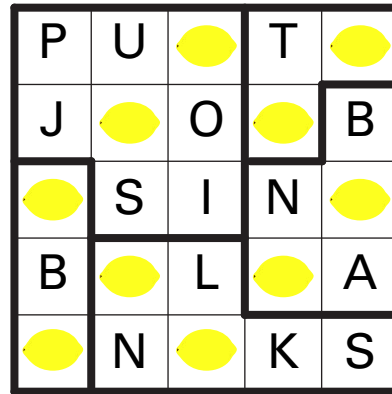

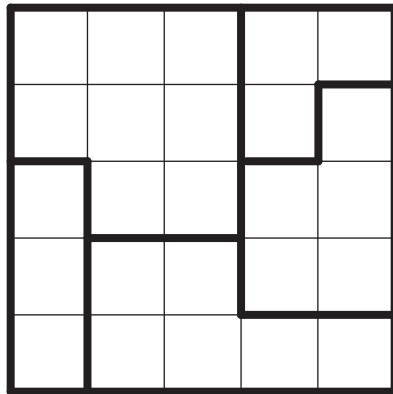

Received with this puzzle: one business card; this page; two identical copies of a printed sheet.

DASH 6 - DASH Jr.

This is a Lemon Battle puzzle. Find a way to place lemons in the grid so that every row, every column, and every region contain exactly 2 lemons. But be careful – no lemons can be next to each other (though they can touch diagonally). Once you're done, you can put the jobs you found into the squares that don't contain lemons. Then read down diagonally to find Ricky's dream job!

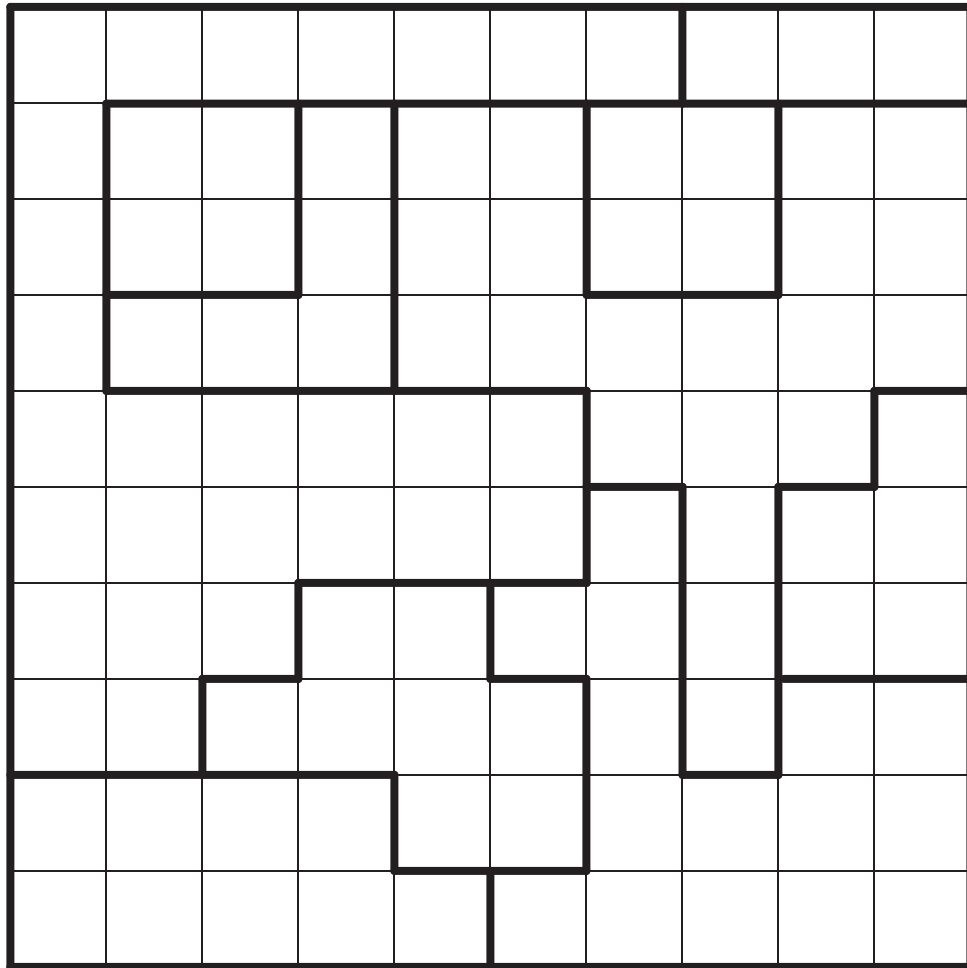

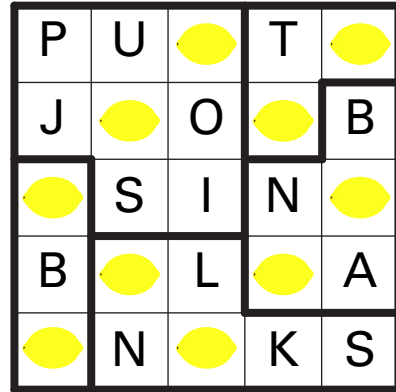

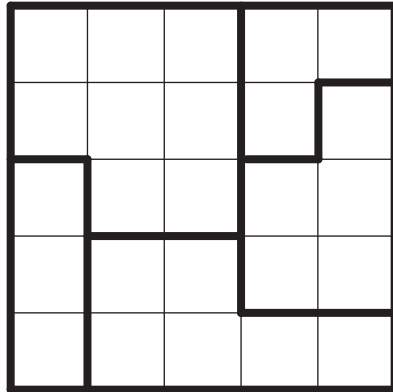

Example:

Ricky's job is in this field: 🍋 — 🍋 — 🍋

This is a Lemon Battle puzzle. Find a way to place lemons in the grid so that every row, every column, and every region contain exactly 2 lemons. But be careful – no lemons can be next to each other (though they can touch diagonally). Once you're done, you can put the jobs you found into the squares that don't contain lemons. Then read down diagonally to find Ricky's dream job!

Example:

Ricky's job is in this field: 🍋 — 🍋 — 🍋 —